VANCOUVER SPORTS.

Events in Which the Queen City Boys Distinguished Themselves Yesterday.

Scores in Baseball and Cricket Matches—The Close of a Successful Carnival.

The baseball match between the Vancouver and James Bays yesterday was the principal event of the second day's celebration. And a very woolly game it is said to have been. Both sides played a very loose game. Fred Jackson, the James Bay pitcher, for the first time in his career played unsteadily. Pitcher Adams pitched good game for the Vancouvers at first but was batted all over the field before the close of the game and gave up after the fifth inning. Pitcher March, of the Kamloops team, umpired the game to the great satisfaction of everyone. The boys speak very highly of the manner in which they were treated.

Following is the score of the game:

300 YARD RACE.

This event came off at Vancouver yesterday by Tom Dixon of Victoria. The competitors were Irving, the professional runner, and the boys in the Vancouver and Seattle hose teams. The race is said to have been a good one, Irving, who was backed heavily, Vancouver, took the lead, followed closely by Watson who put on a spurt at 250 yards and ran right away from him.

THE CRICKET MATCH.

The Old-Time Champions Keep Up Their Record.

This event took place Hastings', and a better day's sport did scarcely be hoped for. The terminality put a team in the field which made good stand and developed some fair bowling. The batting of the Victorians as usual was strong, and this it was which won a match for them. Following is the score:

HORSE RACES.

"Mayflower" won the three-quarter mile race, first prize $250; and A. Cassell's "Royal" the half mile race, first $125. Both were Nanaimo horses.

THE CITIZENS' BALL.

The official ball, which took place in the Imperial opera house, was a most successful affair from every point of view. The committee had made the most complete arrangements, and it was impossible, except from some unforeseen contingency, that anything should mar the harmony of the occasion. About 9 o'clock the hall was tolerably well filled, and at 10 o'clock there were about 200 couples on the floor. A programme of twenty-one dances had been arranged, and this was carried out without a break.

THE SEAL ISLANDS.

The Alaska Commercial Co. will Bid Again for the Lease.

When Louis Sloss, Jr., was asked by an Examiner reporter: "Will the Alaska Commercial Company bargain in the field for the seal islands?" he answered, "Of course it will, and we think it will get it. We have paid the government a vast amount of money for the concession. We have built up the business, as you might say; have created a market for the skins, and have our buildings there and the sealing globules in good condition—more seals than ever before—so why shouldn't we get it?

"If you had a farm, say, and a man leased it for twenty years and farmed it well and put up buildings, wouldn't you feel more like letting him have it again than somebody you didn't know and who didn't understand farming? Well, that's the situation."

Mr. Sloss consulted a thick, yellow-leaved book, full of memoranda and a great quantity of figures.

"We have paid the government since we took the lease, now over nineteen years ago, $2,625½ on each skin and $15,000 a year rental. The total of this foot up to date is $5,633,000. This is due to the government from us, mind you; but besides this the government has received large sums in the way of duties from the skins on their return from London where they have been colored.

"When we took hold of the business a seal skin was worth but twenty shillings, or $5 in London. Recollect we were paying the government $2,625½ net, besides the annual bonus, and we were stand all the expenses of catching as well as shipping to London.

"There was also no demand for sealskins, and we created a demand. And thus where before was barren of revenue to the country had become a source of profit."

"Might I ask if you will bid more for the next concession than for the last?"

WILL BID MUCH HIGHER.

"Oh, of course we expect to bid a good deal more. And we think we can. We know the grounds and the business. Having been in it we know better how to conduct the fisheries than if we had never had anything to do with them. Certainly we expect to pay more.

"The contract will undoubtedly be let sometime next fall or winter, probably soon after the assembling of Congress. It must be let early, for while our contract expires on the 31st of May, 1890, the yearly season begins on June1 st.

INTERIOR NEWS.

Petroleum Springs—Mining News—A Pensioner Sentenced.

From Donald Truth.]

Mike Carlin has returned from a trip to the petroleum springs in which he is interested. There are 71 springs within a radius of 800 acres and the indications are that the quantity is inexhaustible and the quality first-class, two or three separate analysis have shown 91 per cent of lubricating oil. These springs are not in the Crow's Nest Pass, but within about 60 miles of the C. P. R., and in British Columbia. Mr. Carlin brought back with him two or three gallons of the crude oil just as it was scooped off the water. He says that the situation is most favorable, and that as several offers have already been received from capitalists, there is but little doubt that thorough tests will soon be made.

The only thing of importance is the announcement that work will be immediately resumed at the Monarch mine at Field, the owners of that property and the smelter at Vancouver having placed both mine and smelter in charge of L. D. Davis. This means business, for Mr. Davis is a thoroughly practical man. A number of men are working on claims adjacent to the Monarch, and Field is again showing signs of liveliness.

Reports are in circulation of rich Placer finds on the headwaters of Bull river and over near Enderby. In fact, there is quite a stampede to the latter diggings, they being reported to be worth $30 a day to the man.

On Porcupine creek the Discovery company are making more than wages, and the Elsie taking out nuggets of as high value as $15. The foreman of the latter is beginning to have a better opinion of the Elsie ground.

Leo, the Indian who stabbed Poskitt at Moberly last spring, was tried before Judge Walkem on Friday. He waived a jury, and got two years.

MARITIME METHODISTS:

Take No Action Relative to Jesuit Estates Act.

St. John, N.B., July 1.—The Methodist conference of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island has adjourned. The most important conference in the maritime provinces passed no resolution on the Jesuit Estates Act. They attended strictly to denominational affairs.

ENGLISH POLITICS.

Socialists Joining Hands With the Liberals Against Salisbury.

London, June 30.—The liberal party is in luck. The socialists, who were growing mutinous about the absence of labor questions from the official programme, have been propitiated by the attitude of the liberal leaders on the international conference in Berne. Lord Salisbury accepted the invitation to the conference, but forbade the British delegates to discuss the limitation of the hours of labor of adult males. Last night Messrs. R. Cunningham Graham and John Morley raised a vigorous protest against this in the Commons. Graham, the socialist, advocates an eight-hour bill. Morley, the political Romanist, denounces it. But both agreed in opposing the government, whose veto on the discussion practically destroys British influence at the conference. The debate in the house was interesting and suggestive, and the result was a majority of 65 for the government. But the 180 members of the majority will find the vote on the discussion difficult to justify before their constituents.

In the lords the tory dukes almost threw overboard the transfer bill on the largest master of peers this session. The government only escaped by a majority of nine. The feeling of the peers is that the government is passing radical measures they have spent their lives in denouncing. The narrow escape creates a sensation, and will probably doom the bill.

France's refusal to assent to the conversion of Egyptian preferred debt, unless the English will fix a date for evacuation, will secure the rejection of the scheme.

THE CLUBS PLEASED.

Society Meets With Favor the Betrothal of Princess Louise.

London, June 30.—Much satisfaction is expressed in this city at the betrothal of Princess Louise of Wales to a British peer instead of a foreigner. This incident is especially gratifying since, as in the case of the elder Princess Louise, the chosen man comes of a lineage which has held its own in the annals of the United Kingdom since the day when some of the reigning branches of the continent were comparatively unknown. The betrothal is the sole topic of discussion at the clubs. Rumor had for a long time past been busy in the club rooms with the possibility of such a match, and what gave particular strength to the possibility of such alliance was the fact that the report was most credited by those about the Prince. Yesterday afternoon the queen formally gave her consent to the union. The Princess Louise has in her short career won universal popularity. Like all royal princesses, she has always been troubled with shyness, but not more so than might be expected from young ladies not long outof the world. But those who have penetrated the veil of modesty surrounding her have found in her a charming womanly nature, a fine intelligence, and a good share of her mother's remarkable charm of manner. She has a pretty figure, is about middle size, and her face has plenty of character. She was born at Sandringham House, February 20, 1867. The Earl of Fife has been for many years the close friend of the Prince and Princess. Everybody knows him and knows well of him. He is a model for the British aristocracy.

LONDON'S HOMAGE.

The Shah Presented With an Address by London's Civic Officials.

London, July 3.—The Shah of Persia visited Guild hall to day, passing on the way through the Strand, Fleet street and Cheapside. At Guild hall he was received by the city and corporation officers and who presented an address on behalf of the city of London. After partaking of breakfast, which was spread in the great hall, the Shah returned to Buckingham Palace by way of Queen Victoria street and the Embankment. The Shah and his party were accompanied in their state carriage by the Prince of Wales and both the Prince and the Shah were loudly cheered by immense throngs that lined the streets through which they passed. The weather was cloudy and sunless, but very favorable for sight seeing.

A GREAT BATTLE.

General Slaughter of Dervishes by Egyptian Troops—English Officers Killed.

15,000 Men on Strike—A Drop in Sugar—The Fire Record.

By Postal Telegraph.]

Cairo, July 3.—Egyptian troops under Colonel Wadehouse have had a battle at Arquin with a body of dervishes, defeating them and putting them to rout. The dervish loss in killed and wounded is five hundred. The Egyptians lost only seventy. Two English officers were wounded. Colonel Wadehouse is now pursuing the flying dervishes.

The dervishes attempted to effect a lodgment on the river bank, whereupon Colonel Wadehouse forthwith advanced upon them with a field force. The dervishes stubbornly resisted the attack, but after they had lost two guns they began to retreat. The battle extended seven miles along the river bank, the dervishes retiring northward.

FIRE RECORD.

New York, July 3.—A fire, which started this morning in the basement of the Palace Royal, a noted fancy goods store on 14th street, through the carelessness of a servant in lighting gas, damaged the stock of the store to the amount of about $25,000, and building $10,000. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

DROP IN SUGAR.

New York, July 3—The sugar trust stock created a sensation in the market this morning by dropping seven and a half per cent.

15,000 MEN STRIKE.

Vienna, July 2—Six thousand workmen have struck at Brann, including all the bakers in the city. A detachment of military has been sent there. There has been no rioting as yet. Later advices from Brann state that the strikers number 15,000, and demand an increase of 20 per cent in wages.

TOTAL WRECK.

San Francisco, July 2—Advices received to-day from Fort Ross, on the Northern California coast, state that the steamer Acme, which went ashore above there on June 28th, will be a total loss. She is fast breaking up and a wrecking party is removing the cargo. The loss is about $15,000.

NEARLY A VICTIM.

New York, July 3.—James Tanneham of Belfast, Ireland, visiting here, was nearly the victim of bunco men last night on Broadway. The police were watching the party, however, and arrested the would-be swindlers. Tanneham had a large sum of money on his person and his escape was very narrow.

RICH STAKE.

New York, July 3.—The Realization stake, 1½ miles, at Coney Island yesterday and worth $40,000 to the winner, was won by a California horse, Haggin's Salvator.

THE PRESIDENT'S MOVEMENTS.

New York, July 3.—President Harrison and party, consisting of Secretary and Mrs. Noble, Adjutant-General L. A. Barbour, Lieut. Mason N. Bowen, Col. Elliott F. Shepherd, left the Fifth Avenue hotel this morning at 8.35 and were driven in three carriages to the Grand Central depot, where the ten o'clock train on the New Haven railroad was taken for Woodstock, where the party will be the guests of Henry C. Bowen, for the 4th of July. At the depot, Secretary Tracey joined the president. A stop will be made at Hartford, where the president will visit the state capital.

TWO SISTERS KILLED.

Lockport, N. Y., July 3.—Last night Mary and Lizzie Hawkes, sisters, while swinging in a hammock, were struck by lightning and instantly killed.

THE REGULAR MURDER.

Lancaster, Cal., July 3.—William Tweedy, a cattle man, left Lancaster today and went to Maynard, ten miles distant, where he stopped at a blacksmith's shop to get his buggy fixed. While working, W.C. Wheeling came in, and Tweedy asked why he had killed a certain bull, at the same time stooping to pick up a chisel. Wheeling drew a revolver and fired two shots, one of them striking Tweedy in the middle of the back on the left side. The wounded man died in an hour. He was quite wealthy. Wheeling surrendered to-day fearing lynching.

POSSIBLY MURDERED.

Chicago, July 2—The Times this morning says the friends of Dr. O'Clary, of Chicago, who disappeared about a year ago, believe he was murdered in the same manner as was Dr. Cronin, and that the murder was the work of the same conspirators and same influences as were connected with the Cronin case.

EXPLOSION.

Paris, July 2—The Ruggieres Fire Works Factory, in Aubervilliers, five miles from this city, exploded to-day killing eight people.

TRYING TO CHEAT THE GALLOWS.

Helena, Mont., July 3.—Another cunningly devised effort to cheat the gallows by Bryson, the wife murderer, has just been discovered. One of the murderer's lady friends in Helena sent him a "pigs in clover" puzzle. Sheriff Halford suspected that something was wrong and in handling the marbles found that one seemed rather soft. Crushing it between his fingers he found inside a strychnine pill sufficient to kill a dozen people. The marble was a wad of stale bread.

FEARFUL MURDER.

Santa Rosa, Cal., July 3—Tom Wilson killed a man called "Crazy Joe" at Glen Ellen yesterday afternoon. To the deputy who arrested him, Wilson said, "Yes, I killed him. I cut his throat from ear to ear and then he said for me to finish the job so I took my gun and placed it at his nose and blew the whole top of his head off." Wilson, while frankly admitting his crime, did not assign any reason for it. He is believed to be insane.

HONORS TO SULLIVAN.

Boston, July 3.—Last night, Prof. Thos. T. Drohan, left for New Orleans, bearing the Parnell Athletic Club's tribute to Sullivan which will be presented to him in the ring. It is an American flag of the finest silk five feet long and four feet wide, attached to a heavy brass mounted ebony pole, nine feet in length and surmounted by a large American eagle. In the centre of the blue field of the flag is a gilt harp of Erin, about which is entwined a shamrock. Running horizontally across the banner, in large gilt letters, is the inscription: "Presented to John L. Sullivan, champion of the world, by the Parnell Athletic Club of Boston, July 8th, 1889."

Cincinnati, July 3.—The Sullivan party left Cincinnati by the Queen and Crescent line for New Orleans at 8.22 this morning. Sullivan's special, one of Mann's boudoir cars, the "Lucia," was attached to the rear of the train. Sullivan came some time before the hour of departure, having had an early breakfast at the Burnett house. He rushed to the car and secluded himself from the public gaze. About fifty local sportsmen about town gained admittance within the depot gates, and acted as a guard of honor until the train pulled out. A man who sells Sullivan badges, did quite a lively business, and the champion face printed on white ribbon adorned the manly breasts of many of his admirers on the platform. The train contained very few passengers outside of the Sullivan party and a few regular travelers. Among the latter were several ladies. John McCormick, of the New York Sun, joined the party here. Harry Weldon, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and Geo. A. Shives, of the Evening Post, got aboard. No demonstration occurred as the train pulled out. Speaking of Sullivan, Wrestler Muldoon said: "He is trained for a rushing fight or a prolonged fight, and he don't see how Kilrain can defeat him. I think Kilrain should never have been rated in Sullivan's class."

CONFESSES.

Chicago, July 3—A morning paper says: "Runge has made a statement to the police authorities which is said to be as follows: "I met Daniel Coughlin on the evening of May according to an appointment. I drove through an alley and out on to the street where Coughlin was waiting for me. He got into the buggy and we went to Carlson cottage at 1872 North Ashland Avenue. The horse used that night belonged to O'Sullivan, the Lakeview ice man. It was a large, strong horse, rather too large for an ordinary buggy and had a white face. There were two planks in front of the cottage extending from the sidewalk across the ditch. I stopped right close to these planks, Coughlin got out and ran up the steps, somebody was waiting for him I think, for the door was opened before he had time to knock.

AS SURMISED.

San Francisco, July 2—As was surmised, Wm. H. Wilcox, whose name has been associated with the suicide of Mrs. Hollis on Saturday last, by poison, also suicided with the same means. His body was found hidden in the underbrush of one of the public parks yesterday.

SENATORIAL COMMITTEE.

Chicago, July 2—Senator Dawes, of Mass., Stockbridge, of Michigan, Manderson of Nebraska, Jones of Arkansas, and Wolcott of Colorado, composing the Senate Committee investigating the condition and requirements of the present and proposed Indian schools in Alaska, left here to-day. They go from this city direct to Port Townsend via Omaha and Tacoma, where the government steamer Albatross will be at their disposal until July 25th, by which time they expect to return to Port Townsend, and after a few days spent in Washington Territory and Victoria they will return east about August 1st. The trip will be an extensive one, and after visiting most of the northern schools and islands, just off the main coast, the committee, if it has time, may cross to the Island of Kodiak, 683 miles west of the mainland.

THREE MILLION DOLLARS

The Amount of the Johnstown Fund Yet to be Distributed.

Johnstown, July 2—Judge Cummings who has charge of the distribution of the money collected for the benefit of the sufferers by the flood, arrived this morning. Judge Cummings first held a conference with the local finance committee in regard to the manner in which money now at his command amounting to $3,000,000 or over should be distributed. After the conference the judge stated that no serious difficulty was anticipated in making an equitable distribution. "My idea," he said, "coincide with the local committee's ideas in one particular. I had arranged for the applicants to swear to the amount of their financial damage. The local committee is right in thinking that when a man is making his own statement he will make it as strong as possible. Precautions must therefore be devised to guard against this. Every applicant will probably receive a certain percentage of the amount of his losses. Only needy sufferers are to receive compensation, and some time must necessarily elapse to ascertain who the needy really are."

OUR ROYAL FAMILY.

The Queen Will Not Provide Marriage Portions.

London, July 2.—When the announcement was made last night that the eldest son of the Prince of Wales had been betrothed to the sister of the Emperor of Germany, it was accompanied by the statement that the Queen would give the Princess a marriage settlement and that parliament would not be asked to make provision for him. This statement was received with undisguised satisfaction at the time in all quarters, as it was felt that the Queen could well afford to look after the young Prince's housekeeping; but it seems that the taxpayer's joy was just a little premature. In the commons to-day the Speaker read messages from the Queen commending to the house a provision for Prince Albert Victor and Princess Victoria. The reading of the message caused considerable surprise among members. Mr. W. Henry Smith intimated that the government would be prepared to consider messages next Thursday. Mr. Labouchere gave notice that he would oppose all votes of money if made before the appointment of a commission on royal grants to inquire into the whole matter.

MICHAEL DAVITT FIRM.

He is Yet in Favor of Agitation Unless Justice is Done Ireland.

London, July 3.—Michael Davitt, as a witness before the Parnell commission, said Patrick Ford honestly advocated constitutional agitation. Witness said he was opposed to the use of dynamite, because its use was immoral and unmanly. He was not opposed, however, to physical force if there was a reasonable chance of success from its employment. The league, he said, did not circulate copies of the Irish World in Ireland; Ford, though, sent some copies over by means of "spread the light," and witness paid the postage on them. The league did not circulate the letter of John Devoy on "Next Departure," which was quoted by Sir Richard Webster. Davitt said he had been acquainted with Alex. Sullivan since 1879, and he had the greatest opinion of Sullivan's ability as a lawyer. Of his character as a citizen and his honor as a man, he declared he thought him incapable of anything dishonorable. After the return of witness to Ireland he delivered speeches denouncing outrages. He declared he disliked agitation and would willingly abandon its use to-morrow if he saw some justice done to Ireland, but otherwise he would not abandon it.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

Port Arthur, July 3—During a heavy thunder storm yesterday afternoon a young man named Walter Adams, while crossing a hall in the Continental Hotel, in which the front and back doors were open, was struck by a lightning bolt and killed instantly. The lightning apparently passed through an open hallway as Adams was crossing it. There were no marks on the body.

THREE PERSONS DROWNED.

Gravenhurst, Ont., July 3—About midnight on Sunday eight persons were run into by the steamer "Oriole" entering the narrows. The Oriole stopped as soon as possible and life preservers were thrown out. Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Lozee and Lozee were drowned.

RAILWAY COMPETITION.

Montreal, July 3—It is admitted by C. P. R. people here that the Northern Pacific are actively engaged in securing the contract of roads in the northwest with a view to entering into active competition with the Canadian route.

PERSONAL.

Items Telling of Movements of Well Known Persons.

Miss Cluness, the efficient teacher of North Gabriola school for some time past, has resigned her position as such.

W. E. Osterhout left for the mainland this morning on business matters.

W. E. Deeks, B. A., of McGill University, and at present in mission work at Calgary, N. W. T., is spending a couple of weeks in the city, the guest of his fellow student, R. E. Knowles.

Mr. Moore, the expert sent up to examine the Cherry Creek mine, returned to the city last night.

J. Tallyard, of Rock Creek, arrived down last night.

Canon Ellegood, of Montreal, arrived last night and will leave to-day for San Francisco.

T. B Smith, assistant commissioner of the Hudson Bay Co., returned from Kamloops last night considerably improved in health. During his stay in the interior he visited several points of interest in the Okanagon country, and was much impressed with the great agricultural capabilities of that fine valley when the S. A. O. R. is completed. Mr. Smith also visited the new camp at Siwash creek, and brought down a quantity of the dust for assay.

Superintendent Roycraft returned from Vancouver last night.

J. A. Mara, M. P., and Mrs. Mara arrived in the city last night from Kamloops, in response to a telegram informing them of the serious illness of Mr. F. S. Barnard.

Hon. John Robson and Mr. Robson returned from Vancouver yesterday.

Mrs. E. C. Baker returned from the east on Tuesday.

F. Bourchier has returned to the city from the Nooksack valley, where, for a few days, he was investigating the "land question" from real estate agents' point of view. He formed a very favorable impression of the district, which is certain, he thinks, to come into great prominence as a field for settlement when provided with railway facilities.

H. Plowman and son are stopping at the Oriental and are bound to-day for Alaska, sailing on the Corona.

S. Samuel, of the well-known hardware firm of M. & L. Samuel, Benjamin & Co., Toronto, is in the city. Mr. Samuel has a somewhat melancholy interest in Victoria, his father having died at the Clarence Hotel about two years ago while on his way home from California. Mr. Samuel goes south to California before returning home.

Archie McLean, proprietor of the Commercial Weekly, Shelburne, N. Y., is visiting his sister, Mrs. O'Brien, Pandora street.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

Searle and O'Connor—The Race will Take Place in September.

The one remaining hope of a race between the representative seventy footers of England and the United States, has been destroyed.

JUST SO.

Winnipeg Free Press.—Charlie Watson, who caught Marsh in the Winnipeg-Fargo baseball teams in May, passed through the city yesterday en route to Kamloops, where Marsh already is. Three other members of the Minneapolis Lyndales accompanied him. They will all play with the Kamloops team on Dominion Day against a Victoria nine. The Kamloops club proposes to win the British Columbia championship if it has to import the Chicagos to do it.

A dispatch from London says: "Searle, the Australian champion sculler, is already training for the Thames match against O'Connor. He is a big, powerful looking fellow. Sporting men here like his appearance so well that they are backing him heavily to win. Searle came to the World office to-day and wanted to find out what the American papers had been saying about O'Connor. He said: 'I do not underrate his abilities in the least. From all I can learn he is a first-class sculler; but I have made up my mind to beat him, and I think I shall be able to do it—barring accidents. I feel very strong now. I think I shall row faster on the Thames than ever I have done in Australia.' There is in England O'Connor, who has a boat built for him by a famous maker there and W. W. Ruddock, the well-known American builder, will send him a shell now in the stocks and a most finished. O'Connor will go straight from Liverpool to London and thence to Putney. Race has not been definitely arranged to train him, but the experience of the New Brunswicker on the Thames is so valuable that O'Connor will likely engage him. The services of Green or Kelly will be sought as coach.

O'Connor says Searle must be a wonder, from all accounts. Still, he thinks he will be in the race throughout. Asked what he thought of Hanlan's views, O'Connor said the ex-champion implied that he (O'Connor) would win if he had the staying power. "That is what I rely on. I could always beat Hanlan for any distance, but the latter never knew how fast. I know, though, that Ned wishes to see me win," he added.

Regarding the date of the race, O'Connor believes that it will be fixed for Monday, Sept. 9, and that it will be rowed about one o'clock on that day.

VANCOUVER CELEBRATION.

The celebration at Vancouver, to use a well-worn reportorial expression, was an "immense success." The weather was perfect, and the crowd—considering the age and environment of the city—was enormous. The sports were well contested, and, with one or two exceptions, gave every satisfaction to participants and spectators. The reception committee dispensed a princely hospitality, and the citizens vied with one another in making the occasion a pleasant one for their guests. The character of the demonstration as a whole would have done credit to an old city, and it speaks volumes for the enterprise, liberality and public spirit of the Vancouverites that a city, just three years removed from an impenetrable forest, should thus early have assumed the full status of manhood and earned the distinction of being an exemplar of national feeling and patriotic love of country.

IMPERIAL FEDERATION.

The Imperial Federation "fad," as it is now being called, has taken a relapse, if we may believe the Canadian papers. Sir CHARLES TUPPER, in a speech at the annual dinner of the Imperial Federation League, coolly told the London federationists that the "British Empire will not fall to pieces if their 'fad' is not adopted." The Imperial Federation "fad," like the annexation "fad" in the States, by which it is proposed to annex not Canada alone but Mexico and Central America, is simply an overgrown sentiment, and impracticable because of its vastness. The sentiment of undue aggrandizement always has been and always will be a costly article. It ruined ALEXANDER, HANNIBAL, CÆSAR and NAPOLEON. It has ruined, in fact, every individual and every nation which ever undertook to carry it into practical effect. It is not that Canadians are not loyal enough to embrace Imperial Federation; it is because they are too practical and too far-seeing to enter upon a condition which has no precedent to recommend it, and which is opposed at the same time to the dictates of common sense. The same reason which should inspire Canada to decline closer relations with the States than perhaps commercial reciprocity, should also urge her to decline Imperial Federation, and that reason is cumbersomeness. This much, however, is due from Canada to England, if not for England's sake for the sake of civilization and constitutional government, and that is her moral support at all times, and her material support should the emergency arise which seems to require it. England is really the arbiter of affairs in Europe, and it is the duty of Canadians, and of Americans for that matter, to see that she continues in that function. Until constitutional government is established firmly throughout Europe, a menace exists to liberal institutions, and England's supremacy should be maintained at all hazards. Imperial Federation, however, is a dream, the vision of well meaning but impracticable men. Time enough to think about Imperial Federation seriously when hard headed citizens like SALISBURY and Sir JOHN MACDONALD openly and unequivocally advocate it.

TRUSTS.

Nothing is more certain than that "trusts" are not to be trusted, their primary purpose being to control prices in whatever commodity they are concerned. It is not so clear, though, that "trusts" are an unmixed evil. Bear in mind that we are not in favor of "trusts," and believe that they should be ruthlessly suppressed. They afford a method of doing injury. Still, "trusts" cannot force gilt-edged prices, for so sure as they do they raise up "trusts" against them. Trusts will compete against trusts, just the same as individuals compete against individuals, no one "trust" has yet been able to control exclusively any commodity. Not even the Standard Oil "trust." The oil business is hydra-headed. Scarcely does this "trust" get control of an oil region than another is discovered which must be purchased. The latest great "trust" is the lead "trust." The Standard Oil Company who are said to be behind the salt "trust," are understood to be at the back of this also. Whether this gigantic consolidation when fully effected will increase prices or not is a matter in which interested parties are speculating with little to guide them to correct conclusions. It is pointed out that the Standard Oil Company disregards middlemen, dealing directly with the retailers, and cheapening oil to the masses. This is the feature, says the Montreal Star, which to some extent "reconciles the consumer to the gigantic monopoly." Nevertheless, for all that, the Standard Oil Company sells its oil at a reasonable figure, and will probably be equally as reasonable in its prices for lead should it capture that commodity. The principle of trusts is a bad one, there being no bar to the practice of extortion except through the fear of raising counter "trusts." The idea of a trust, in fact, is to extort to guarantee the highest possible values, at the lowest possible cost to the dealer. Thus the "trust" can force the producer to sell at their figures, and yet keep up prices to the consumer. An institution of this kind between the producer and consumer should not be tolerated. It pays a premium on cupidity and enriches the few at the expense of the many.

THE KOOTENAY STAR.

What ails the Kootenay Star that it should take the government to task about the mining laws of this province? By virtue of what authority has the Kootenay Star the right to assail the men who hold the destinies of this province in the hollow of their hands when its august parent, the Inland Sentinel, is running out its numbers, muzzled like a dog in dog days? In the matter of the Peace river land exchange we have had the singular picture of a government organ advocating the scheme, the government meanwhile in the passive mood (so it is alleged), and now before this phenomenon is explained we are having a journalistic exemplification of similar conditions in the shape of the Sentinel for the government and the Star kicking against it, both papers owned and managed by the same individual. Convenient, this condition of affairs, at least for the editor and proprietor. He can bless the government in Kamloops and curse it in Revelstoke, both practically in the same breath. But this is too good to last, and doubtless the fiat has gone forth from the government office ere this, "prepare a gag for the Star." "The drafting of an act is by no means a simple work," says the Star, and then it proceeds to ask what we have a "House of Assembly for, a standing committee, an attorney-general and a government, if they cannot draft an intelligible mining law. Half or more of those concerned are incompetent, and the remainder are too lazy to work," continues the Star, growing furious. This is simply too good. HUME on the Thompson subscribing to government measures; HUME on the Columbia branding the government with being both lazy and idiotic. Has the government no advertising for the Kootenay Star?

SIR LISTER KAYE.

Sir JOHN LISTER KAYE, the manager of the Canadian Coal and Colonization Company, which it may be remarked in passing is a beautiful instance of unconscious alliteration, has been interviewed by the Calgary Tribune, in the course of which the following irrelevant questions were asked:

"Is it true you bought your private car from the Canadian Pacific Railway?" "Oh, no; it was specially made for me by Barney & Smith, of Dayton, Ohio, on plans almost entirely drawn up by Lady Kaye, after whom the car is named."

"It is very complete."—"Yes, it is extremely so. It has a dining room, drawing room, two bed rooms, bath room, buggage room, kitchens, etc., besides which it has four additional berths and two other berths for porters."

This is a perfectly free country, and not alone has Sir JOHN LISTER KAYE the right to own a private car, but a whole train of them, with a locomotive to boot. Nevertheless, there is something incongruous at the sight of a stock raiser putting on the airs of an Oriental potentate. Dr. GLENN, of Colusa, California, who farmed 50,000 acres of wheat, who owned 20,000 sheep, as many cattle, 10,000 horses and mules, attended to his business about the ranch on horseback, and when he visited San Francisco it was with the unostentatious simplicity of a mere citizen. Nor was Dr GLENN a skinflint. He spent his money liberally and never went back on a friend. The democracy of GLENN disarmed envy, and no man begrudged him his thousands of acres. Still, Dr. GLENN was high toned and as proud as Lucifer. But his sense of congruity was such that he could not associate the pomp of courts with the simple functions of a rancher. However, if Sir LISTER KAYE chooses to ranch on the basis of a Principality, we have no business to cavil. There is something in the air of the Northwest, however, which is not favorable to palace car stock raising, and none would be surprised if this rancher-voluptuary had to abandon special cooks, porters and valets for practices more in harmony with his environment and his vocation.

PRIZE FIGHTING.

One of the queer features of our civilization is, that although it is illegal, and although society has set the stamp of disapproval upon it, prize fighting still goes on. Like the opposition to prohibition it will not down. SULLIVAN and KILRAIN to-day are the centres of attraction in the United States, and the details of the affair in which they are about to participate will be reported to the minutest particulars. It is reported that the attendance at the fight will be gauged only by the ability to witness it. The best seats are being sold for $15, and doubtless if $50 were asked there would be plenty of takers. But the remarkable feature of the affair is that, though there was a law in Louisiana against prize fighting, or in any other state in the union in fact, it is doubtful if the moral energy exists to make the law effective. "Money makes the mare go," and the police are proverbially indifferent. Nevertheless we cannot hold the officers of the law directly responsible for dereliction of duty in refusing to interfere in "mills" which, although cried down, are objects of superlative interest. Combativeness is the distinguishing trait of the trio of races of which the English speaking people are composed, and moralize against it as much as we will, and legislate against it as much as we may, these are accepted only as the assertion of an abstract principle. The rule which makes it impossible to carry out in practice the fine spun theories of moralists with reference to alcoholism and other issues in which only the individual is affected, applies to prize fighting. So long as two men are willing to take the chances of being pounded into an unrecognizable mass, why should society interfere. It is the principals who are injured, not society, at least that is the way a large proportion of society regards it. We are not undertaking a defence of prize fighting, but in a physical sense neither KILRAIN nor SULLIVAN are taking greater chances of mortal injury than is involved in a boat race. At the conclusion of the boat race between Columbia and Cornell, six of the former crew fell over in a dead faint. One man was delirious and four hysterical. Their condition was so critical in fact that the services of a physician were required. Prize fighting calls for no such strain as this on the nerves and the heart, and if merciful considerations are at the bottom of the law against prize fighting the sooner they are applied to college boat races the better. Prize fighting is brutal—there is no question of that—but it is not attended with the deleterious consequences peculiar to long continued exertion as illustrated in some of our legitimate sports.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant to take; sure and effectual in destroying worms. Many have tried it with best results.

—A thrifty animal is the snake. He can always make both ends meet.

—Why go limping and whining about your corns, when a 25 cent bottle of Holloway's Corn Cure will remove them? Give it a trial, and you will not regret it.

—A washerwoman is a cruel creature. She daily rings men's bosoms.

—Joseph Busan, Percy, writes:—I was induced to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for a lameness which troubled me for three or four years, and I found it the best article I ever tried. It has been a great blessing to me.

—It is paradoxical and yet true that sickness often lurks in well water.

—Ease by day and repose by night are enjoyed by those who are wise enough to apply Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil to their aching muscles and joints. A quantity easily held in the palm of the hand is often enough to relieve the most exquisite pain.

—When a man settles money on his son it frequently unsettles the son.

—Mrs. M. Stephens, of Albany, N. Y., writes us as follows: "My strength was so weak that I could not eat anything sour or very sweet, even fruit at tea-time would cause Heartburn, fulness or oppression of the chest, short breath, restlessness during sleep, and frightful dreams of disagreeable sights, so that I would often dread to go to sleep. With the use of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery this unpleasantness has all been removed, and I now eat what suits my taste or fancy."

—There is no great genius free from some tincture of madness.

—THE THIN CANNOT GAIN IN WEIGHT if they are troubled with dyspepsia, because the food is not converted into the due proportion of nourishing blood which alone can furnish the elements of flesh. But there is no reason, when this wearing, attenuating disease is conquered by Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, why there should not be an appreciable gain in weight, which indeed is usually the case. It is a positive remedy also for Constipation, Liver Complaint, Kidney troubles, and rooting out all impurities from the blood.

—He that bears himself like a gentleman is worth to have been born a gentleman.

"Bullets as thick as hand-grenades flew,
And where they fell as certainly they slew,"
was said of one of those ignorant doctors in the early times, who might well have been called the side-de-camp of death. The sufferer from scrofula, with sores as bad as Job's, need not now curse the day he was born, for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will restore health and beauty, appetite and strength. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing salt-rheum, tetter, boils, carbuncles, sore eyes, scrofulous sores and swellings, hip joint disease, white swellings, goitre, or thick neck, and enlarged glands.

ALD. COUGHLAN'S BY-LAWS.

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir,—In a few days the ratepayers of the city will vote on by-laws to raise a sum of money for water, park and fire department purposes. The first by-law commends itself to the people residing on streets where it has been found impracticable to lay pipes on account of the expense. The water supply of this city will return a large sum of money to the corporation in a few years and the measures taken to provide the much needed supply will be a light burden on the taxpayers. The measures taken for the improvement of Beacon Hill Park will be greeted with the thanks of the hard working citizens. A place of recreation will be provided second to none on the Pacific coast and will form another attraction to the strangers visiting the Venice of the Pacific. The fire by-law needs very little comment. The experience of Vancouver and Seattle, with the number of fires occurring daily in eastern cities, is a warning to our citizens to prepare for war in times of peace. The city requires additional fire protection in the way of a new steam fire engine, a large aerial truck and an alarm system. The expenditure of the sum asked for by the board of aldermen may be the means of averting a calamity which might cause the loss of millions of dollars worth of property. Victoria is cursed with numerous wooden buildings sandwiched between substantial brick blocks, and the only means of saving the place will be to furnish the firemen with first-class apparatus. It is a move in the right direction to improve the city in the manner proposed and every voter should make it his duty to vote in favor of the by-laws when they are submitted to the people. Progress.

WAS HE GUILTY?

To the Editor of The Times.

Sir,—Permit me through the medium of The Times to draw attention to a matter which may not be of very much interest to the public, but is of great concern to an individual whose face is a familiar one on our streets. The matter I refer to is the recent arrest of John Young, the elderly person who sells candy from day to day on the streets of Victoria. I am well acquainted with many of Mr. Young's relatives, and must certainly express my surprise that one of them should be found guilty of endeavoring to seduce men in the British navy to desert the service of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria. In the troublesome times of '98, what family came to the front with greater alacrity and took up arms in defence of law and order than the Youngs of County Sligo? The family have always been noted for their loyalty to the British Crown, and not one of them loved their Sovereign better than the same John Young who sells candy on the streets of Victoria. This loyalty, I believe, will be appreciated by no one more than the judge before whom Mr. Young was tried and convicted. The circumstances of the case, as I have them on good authority, are simply as follows: Mr. Young follows the somewhat humble business of selling candy on the streets, and makes his home in Seattle in order to be near his sons, who are in the tea business in Tacoma. Whenever he could conveniently do so he has made it a point to celebrate the Queen's Birthday under his own flag. Consequently he came over here on the 24th of May and started selling his candy. A day or so after the Seattle fire he made up his mind to return to that city, and on the evening preceding his departure he became engaged in conversation with some marines belonging to one of the ships then lying in Esquimalt harbor. In a jesting way, for Mr. Young, like most of his countrymen, is fond of a joke, told them that he was going over to Seattle and would like to hire some men to help in cleaning up the ruins left by the fire. They asked him how much he would pay for such work and he named an imaginary sum. It was only a jest and nothing more, and the poor old candy man thought as such it was understood. Judge of his surprise, therefore, on the following morning of being arrested and brought before a justice and after a trial fined the sum of $100, not a large amount to a rich man, but the earnings of years to poor old John Young. The evidence given before the judge, the victim alleges, was distorted in such a way as to make it appear that Mr. Young was not any better than what he might be, and thus a false impression was created against him. And taking it philosophically, he does not care for the money. All he desires is to be placed right before the public, and the name of his family relieved from the stigma which has been cast upon it. The Shakespearean truth:

"Who steals my purse steals trash,
But he that filches from me my good name,
Robs me of that which not enriches him,
And makes me poor indeed."

Applies in Mr. Young's case. Hoping that these few lines will, in a measure, bring about the desired result. I remain, yours, etc., Justitia.

SNOWED UNDER.

To the Editor of The Times:

Dear Sir—I see that Mr. Halliday has taken a great deal of trouble to prove that Mr. Pope's statement to me was false. I made that statement on Mr. Pope's word, as I previously stated. As the returns, for some graded schools at least, as printed in the last school's report are false, it will now be in order for the superintendent of education to explain how they came to be so. In order to refresh his memory I will state that he told me that some of the teachers objected to making them out his way; but he insisted upon it, and gave as a reason, because he wished the sum of the divisions to express the total for the school. I then warned him that he might get caught by some teacher returning only 50 as attending and yet showing an average of 60. This is possible, for instance, if a teacher had 100 pupils from Aug. to Dec. and promoted 50 at Xmas and admitted none from Jan. to June. The return for that division (in the style of last schools report) would show only 50 pupils attending during the year, with an average attendance of 60 or 70. As this is not probable, Mr. Pope said he would risk it. I hope my letter will have the effect of forcing Mr. Pope to print true returns for graded schools in his next report. I am sorry that Mr. Halliday should allow himself to make such rash statements as "maliciously false" and "libelous," even if he should prove to be a teacher who has taught 12 years and gets a life certificate granted to him by the act of last session. Yours truly, J. N. Muir.

Vancouver, July 2, 1889.

HOSE CONTEST.

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir,—The celebration at Vancouver was marred by the decision of the time-keepers in the hose contest on Dominion Day. The race was won fairly by the Victoria team, but was given to the Vancouvers by judges and time-keepers selected in the city instead of men selected for that purpose from the cities sending teams. One of the time-keepers was a paid engineer of the Vancouver fire department, while the others were interested in business in the city and were prejudiced from the start in favor of the home team. It was considered on all sides that the Victorians won the race. On Tuesday morning the captains of the visiting teams held a meeting and decided to take no further part in the contest. Their decision was made known from the balcony of the Sunny Side hotel, and was received with cheers by the large assemblage. The New Westminster and Seattle teams were confident that Victoria furnished the best hose team on the ground, and the only race competed for by the visiting teams proved that Vancouver were to be the winners.

A challenge was issued to run for $1000 in any city outside of Vancouver or Victoria, and an agreement was entered into by the visiting teams to refuse to enter any tournament in which the Vancouvers are entered. The Victorians returned last night on the steamer Islander and will give an exhibition run on Yates street at 8 o'clock on Friday evening in a test similar to the test run by them at Vancouver. It might be of interest to the Vancouver committee to know that every competing team in a firemen's contest is entitled to a timekeeper. If the number of teams competing are equal a referee is selected from a city outside of the places represented. The committee selected at Vancouver knew nothing of hose contests and knew less about time keeping. They were prejudiced in favor of their teams, which was proved by the statement of one of their number that "Vancouver furnished the prizes and would do as they liked about the judges." Fireman.

FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT.

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir,—Invitations were sent to Victoria, Seattle and Westminster to participate in the contest, which were accepted. The Victoria boys went up on Sunday, June 30th. If they had not sent an advance agent they would have had no place to stop, no provision having been made for their accommodation and no one to receive them at the dock to make them welcome. This we would have overlooked had they carried off their sports in a fair and impartial manner in the hose contest. They would allow no judges or timekeepers, only those belonging to Vancouver, and their decisions were unfair and unjust. Seattle ran first; time, 35 seconds. New Westminster ran second, but were unlucky enough to have a man fall. Each and every team signified its willingness to have them run again, which the judges would not allow. The Victoria boys made good run; time, 33 3-5 seconds. The fireman, through an error, took the pipe off instead of the judge. Vancouver N. 1 made a foul, the captain, a fresh man, helping to pull the hose off a the hydrant contrary to all association rules. Vancouver No. 2 ran it 36 seconds, the slowest run of the day. The regular time keeper not getting any time, the judges took time from an outsider, who strange to say made it 34 although three watches, all held together made 36 seconds. A meeting of the visiting teams was called and a written protest sent to the judges who failed to recognize it. They all agree that had there been fair judges or men who understood the business, Victoria would have had fin place. Nozzlemen not being allowed to touch the pipe after it was put on, cattle is entitled to the money, being is only team that carried out the association rules. Second day all visiting teams withdrew from the contest, owing to the unfair treatment they had already received. Victoria boys addressed an assembly from a verandah, stating their reasons for so doing and offering to compete with Vancouver's best team for $500 or $1000, race to be run in Seattle. The Seattle captain made the same offer, which up to now they have not accepted. There is a forfeit in the hands Seattle's captain any time they raise the money. The reason for selecting Seattle is, she is neutral ground, and they throughly understand firemen's races. The sended one of the most disgraceful firemen's tournaments ever held on the Pacific.

THE BRITISH COLUMBIA FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

TAKES RISKS ON THE CASH OR MUTUAL PLANS.

As this is a Home Company, organized by British Columbians for the two-fold purpose of giving cheap insurance and keeping the money in this Province, it commends itself to the support of every insurer desiring the prosperity of this country.

In Ontario, the system of insurance, which is similar to that adopted by this Company, has been in highly successful operation for the past fifty years, and it has proved to be a great advantage to every insurer in it, by reducing the cost of insurance, and it is estimated that now three-fourths of the insurance effected in Ontario is carried by mutual companies.

Painful Accident.

John Buie, a well-know resident of New Westminster, accidentally broke his right leg at the hip joint on Sunday evening. It is feared he will never fully recover the use of the member.

White Labor.

Building operations in Vancouver are carried on with white labor. White men mix the mortar and carry the hod. In Victoria Chinese do the work and it has always been claimed that white labor could not be procured for such work. What is possible in Vancouver cannot be impossible here.

Slight Accident.

The steamer Walla Walla while leaving the V. C. Co.'s coal wharf at Nanaimo on Monday evening, became unmanageable, and collided with the ship Carrollton. Very little damage was done although she carried away the jibboom of the Carrollton and stove two of her own boats, smashed one side of the pilot house and damaged a good deal of fancy work on her side.

Steamer Changes.

The Olympian made her first appearance yesterday afternoon, after undergoing extensive repairs. She now looks as bright as a new dollar.

The Islander, on her return from Port Townsend, will enter the dry dock to have her hull cleaned and receive a new propeller. In the meantime the old favorite Yosemite will perform the service between here and Vancouver, making the first trip in the morning.

More Quartz.

The country appears to be fairly alive with quartz ledges, says the Free Press. This morning Mr. John Smith arrived in an open boat from Reid island, where he reports another rich vein of quartz containing gold and silver has been discovered in close proximity to that being prospected by Mr. William Blaney. The ledge is well defined, and five feet in width, and the specimens are estimated to assay $300 to the ton.

For the South.

The Walla Walla sailed for San Francisco this afternoon with the following passengers from this port: Capt. Smith and wife, Chas. Redecker, A. M. Kohlberg, C. Freeman, J. W. H Campbell and wife, Mrs. J. H. Styles and child, R. C. Harrison, P. J. Harrison, Jno. Dantzer, R. P. Pithet, Rev. J. P. Lundy and wife, Mrs. O. Landreth, Miss Landreth, E. E. A. Davenport, O. Landreth, Rev. J. Ellegood, Miss Ahren, Mrs. Zyons and child, E. Harlow, F. H. Skinner.

New Churches.

The new Methodist Church at Vancouver was dedicated on Sunday last, Rev. Jos. Hall conducting the services in the morning and Rev. J. E. Starr in the afternoon and evening. During the day $7,000 was subscribed toward the building fund, so that the building is almost clear of debt.

It is understood that the Pandora street Methodist congregation, not to be outdone, will before long undertake the erection of a church superior to anything in the province.

Alaska.

The Corona arrived from the Sound this morning and left at 4:30 this afternoon for Alaska. Among the numerous passengers on board were Gen. Russell, A. Alger and wife, Miss Fay Alger, Miss Frances Alger, Russell Alger, Senator and Mrs. Thos. C Platt, of New York; Judge and Mrs. Thurston, of Nebraska; Col. Geo. Marine Accident.

Monday night when the steamship Walla Walla, Capt. Blackburn, was leaving the V. C. Co.'s coal docks, Nanaimo, she accidentally collided with the ship Carrollton, which, had hauled out to the mooring buoy. The Carrollton lost her jibboom and the rigging attached, while the Walla Walla stove in one of her boats and injured the pilot house. It is said the Walla Walla is difficult to steer in close quarters with a slow head of steam. It was purely an accident, and no blame can very well be attached to the crew of either vessel.

Our Citizens Thanked.

Ex-Chief Justice J. R. Lewis, chairman of the Seattle relief committee, has addressed Mayor Grant as follows:

"I have your cheque of the 20th June for $169.25, for our relief fund, in addition to your former contributions to our relief fund. We, of Seattle, feel specially grateful to you of Victoria for your most liberal contributions to assist us at this time. It is ever a source of pride and gratification for us to realize that our neighbors remember us in times like these. You will please convey to your citizens our earnest thanks."

To-Morrow's Excursion.

The Islander will carry excursionists to Port Townsend to-morrow, 4th of July, to witness the celebration there. The upper deck of the steamer will be arranged for dancing, and Capt. Irving will arrange every accommodation possible for those who may be fortunate enough to go. The sail is a delightful one, and the steamer the best on the sound, while a visit to our American friends when they feel at their best, and their patriotism is effervescing at high pressure will undoubtedly prove a pleasure to every one. The fare is very reasonable and we advise all who want a holiday to avail themselves of the opportunity.

The Fourth of July.

It is scarcely correct to say that we celebrate the 4th of July in Victoria. Two years ago a visitor in the city enquired of the manager of the Albion Iron Works why it was that some of the men were working on jubilee day, on the 24th of May and Dominion Day, and not on the 4th of July. The explanation given to the visitor was that this was on the only day on which none of the men come to work. A large proportion of the workmen were Scotchmen and some Americans and they all wanted to attend the Caledonian picnic. It must be the picnic then that makes the day and not the day the picnic.

Quamichan Sports.

There was quite a gathering of settlers and visitors at Duncan's station, (Quamichan) Monday, to take part in the athletic sports arranged for the occasion. A very enjoyable day was spent, and all went home well satisfied. Following is a partial list of the sports, and the successful competitors:

Standing long jump—H. Peck, first; D. Mahoney, second.

Running long jump—A. Bell, first; J. Bell second.

Standing high jump—D. Mahoney and H. Peck, tied.

Sack race—H. Peck, first.

Hop, step and jump—H. Bell, first, J. Bell, second.

THE PROVIDENT SOCIETY.

The Provident Savings Life Assurance Society, of New York.

This solid life company has recently entered the Dominion, made full deposit with the government, and appointed Mr. R. H. Matson general manager for Canada. Mr. T. G. Rayner, of this city, is local agent. The company should do well in British Columbia.

COMOX COAL.

What Col. Crocker Had to Say on His Return.

Col. C. F. Crocker, Vice-President of the Southern Pacific Railway Company, who has just returned to San Francisco from Victoria, announces that henceforth all coal used here by the railroad will be mined at Comox by the company and brought here by their steam colliers. Dunsmuir is interested with the Southern Pacific in the mines and he will put the surplus on the local market for steam and domestic use.

COOK STREET MAIN.

Water Commissioner Summerfield Increases the Supply.

At 4 o'clock on Monday morning water was turned on in the 16-inch main and the increased supply astonished residents on the higher levels. The work of laying pipes was finished on Friday and every preparation was made to open the valve at Beaver lake on Dominion Day. Chairman Coughlen of the water committee accompanied the commissioner to Beaver lake on Monday morning, and when everything was in readiness the valve was opened. The whole arrangement was carried out very quietly and very quick and very few people knew that the increased supply was caused by turning the water into the new mains. On Monday evening a test was made at the fire hydrant at the corner of Yates and View streets to ascertain the effect of the increased pressure in case of fire. A fifty foot length of fire hose was connected to the hydrant and a stream of water was thrown 123 feet through a 1 inch nozzle. The gauge at the city hall showed a hydrant pressure of 45 pounds and a stream of water was thrown which astonished the firemen. Residents of the higher levels state that the supply is ample for all purposes. The pipes along the line are leaking in several places and the contractors will set men to work at once to caulk the connections. Mr. Summerfield states that the valve is not opened to its full capacity. Residents of the lower levels also are pleased with the increased pressure which is ample for all purposes.

NEW MINES.

The Discovery at Siwash Creek—An Ounce of Gold a Day.

Mr. J. Tallyard arrived from Rock Creek last night. In coming out he visited the new mines on Siwash Creek, at the head of Okanagan Lake, which were discovered on Tuesday last. The lower end of the mines run on to the Indian reservation and the Indians ordered the miners off and pulled out their stakes. For several years it has been known that gold existed on Siwash Creek, and last year the McLean brothers took out $70z, but it was not thought that it existed in paying quantities. A number of miners went in about two weeks ago and prospected carefully, with the result that diggings which were believed to be rich were discovered. Since the find an ounce a day to the man has been taken out by those who have their claims opened. The diggings are only about three feet deep to bed rock and very easily worked. There is plenty of water and the miners are of the opinion that at least ten miles of the creek will pay. Two miles of the ten are on the Indian reserve and it is possible that there will be trouble with the Indians. When the stakes were pulled out the miners communicated with Mr. Mara and that gentleman replied that the law gave free miners the right to enter on a white man's land to mine for gold, and that an Indian's rights could not be greater than a white man's. The gold is very coarse. Siwash Creek is fourteen miles from Vernon and easily accessible by wagons. Supplies are cheap and everything seems favorable for a prosperous camp. At Kamloops there was considerable excitement, and people are flocking to the new camp from all directions.

GATHERING OF THE CLANS.

The Games To-Morrow—Dancin' and Skirlin' o' Pipes and sic like.

The great annual picnic of the St. Andrew's and Caledonian society takes place to-morrow at the the society's grounds, Beacon Hill. The grounds will be thrown open to the public at eleven o'clock in the morning, the games commencing sharp at one p. m. The grounds are being decorated to-day and put in readiness for the event. Seating accommodation will be provided for about 2,000 people, and preparations made generally on an elaborate scale. The dancing platform which has been erected is 75 x 100 feet. The ring in which the sports will take place has a circumference of 10 laps to the mile, or about the same as in other years. Precautions have been taken that no one will have a sure thing in the races, the committee reserving the right to handicap the runners. A band of music will be in attendance. The substantial refreshments will be supplied during the day by Messrs. Russell & Co., while Mr. Croft of the Royal Hotel has secured the contract for supplying the liquors. The grounds will be beautifully illuminated during the evening by electric light and an unusually fine display of fire works will take place. The decorations of the grounds are in the hands of Mr. T. Gorrie, which is a guarantee that they will be carried out to perfection. Our friend never does his work by halves.

Tickets will be distributed to ladies and children entering the grounds entitling them to draw in the grand tombola. The beautiful prizes to be drawn for are on exhibition in Hibben & Co.'s window.

It is expected that the day will as usual be a half holiday, the stores closing in the afternoon.
